Sea Dive Resort

2.5 Stars

Built besides the magnificent emerald blue waters, this family-owned property provides guests with a relaxing experience as an antidote to their stressful 'high-tech' everyday life. Here guests can spend the day taking a safari to the Calauit Wildlife Reserve, hiring a boat for a day of island and beach hopping, bask by the outdoor pool, snorkel, dive, go dirt bike riding, opt for relaxing massage treatment, or visit the reputed Makinit Hot Spring and Barracuda Lake.

The resort features 26 all local architectural style guestrooms using local materials combined with functional amenities to produce a supremely restful atmosphere. Guests can enjoy great local food at the in house restaurant and a variety of day trips or tours can easily be arranged and booked through the resort.
